Voluntary Organisations engaged in Promoting Environment Awareness

1839. SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL: Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS be pleased to state:

(a) the names of different voluntary organisations and the amount disbursed to such organisations by Government for promoting environment awareness amongst the people during the last one year; and

(b) what is the method for selecting such organisation for the aforesaid purpose?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI Z. R. ANSARI): (a) A statement is placed on the Table of the Sabha. (See Appendix CXLIII, Annexure No. 85].

(b) An empowered Committee consisting of experts and the officials of the Department had examined the proposals received from various organisations and selected the organisations for the purpose of promotion of environmental awareness on the basis of the credibility, potentiality and innovativeness of the proposals submitted.

Rise in Unemployment in Delhi

1840. SHRI LAL K. ADVANI:
SHRI ASHWANI KUMAR:

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether in 1986 about 1.7 lakh job-seekers got registered in Employment Exchanges in Delhi and only 44,000 could get placements while in 1985, about 2 lakh job-seekers got registered and nearly 57,000 got placements; and

(b) if so, what are the reasoss for the rise in unemployment and decline in placements in 1986 as compared to 1985 and what steps have been taken to meet the situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) All the job-seekers registered with Employment Exchanges are not necessarily unemployed. Employment Exchanges are one amongst several agencies through which placements of unemployed are effected against notified vacancies. Decline in placements in 1986 as compared to 1985 is due to the less number of vacancies notified to the Employment Exchanges.
